Hi Matt. Hope all's well! I thought I'd try reaching out by email, since we seem to keep missing each other by phone. I wanted to let you know that we will be holding another session of our National Counter-Terrorism Seminar (NCTS) in Israel from July 7-15. We would love to have a top executive from HPD join us.

As I recall, you were unable to attend last year due to a family conflict. Assistant Chief Satterwhite was scheduled to attend, but had to cancel at the last minute, due to the hurricane. Would one of you be interested in trying again for this year?

In order to serve as many agencies as possible, we have a policy of accommodating at most one person from any agency per session. But we will have sessions both in 2018 and 2019, so we can try and accommodate both of you by next year, if you're both still interested.

Please note that candidates should not have been to Israel before and should plan on serving for several more years in law enforcement.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

“[NCTS] was, without question, the best training that I’ve ever received in my life... And it has helped me in my career to help protect Washington DC from terrorists.”

—PETER NEWSHAM,
CHIEF OF POLICE,
METROPOLITAN
WASHINGTON, DC

“By being able to come over here [to Israel] and share our experiences, and see what’s happening, tactics, intelligence, and all the things that are occurring over here makes us a better organization. It makes us stronger in the United States.”

—MIKE BROWN, CHIEF OF POLICE, SALT LAKE CITY

ABOUT NCTS

ADL's National Counter-Terrorism Seminar (NCTS) in Israel takes senior law enforcement executives from the United States to Israel for a week of intensive counter-terrorism training, featuring briefings by commanders in the Israel National Police, experts from Israel's intelligence and security services, and the Israel Defense Forces. NCTS provides American law enforcement with strategies to prevent and respond to terrorism and better protect their communities.

The seminar provides:

- Lessons learned and best practices from Israel National Police commanders with extensive firsthand experience in combating terrorism.
- Site visits that take participants behind the scenes to study Israel's security strategies and systems to protect its people and critical infrastructure from attack.
- Small group settings that provide an opportunity to exchange ideas with leaders from Israel's police, military and security services.

Leaders from more than 100 different federal, state and local agencies from across the U.S. have participated in the program since 2004.

ABOUT THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

As part of the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) mission of securing justice and fair treatment for all, ADL works closely with law enforcement to fight extremism and terrorism, and to protect civil rights. ADL has trained thousands of law enforcement leaders from federal, state, local, and military agencies. Headquartered in New York City, ADL has 26 Regional Offices across the country, and an office in Jerusalem.

Participation is by invitation only. For more information, please contact:

We will be holding a special 15th anniversary session of our acclaimed Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats from June 18-20, 2018 in Washington, DC. Please share the information attached and below with top law enforcement executives whom you'd recommend for the opportunity.

ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password [REDACTED]

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

If there is a candidate whom you'd like to recommend for the course, please send him/her the information and application link below, with a reminder that all applications must be received by the end of next week in order to be considered. We appreciate your help identifying strong candidates for the class. Thank you!

The next session of the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) Advanced Training School (ATS) course on extremist and terrorist threats will take place from June 18-20 in Washington, DC. ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password: [REDACTED]

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training. Headquartered in New York City, the League has a staff of more than 300 and a network of 26 regional offices.

Subject: International Flight Information

For your awareness, I wanted to inform you that our international flights have now been ticketed. Because these were purchased as a group, seat changes cannot be made online. If you would like to locate your seat and/or request any changes to your seat assignment, you may do so by calling United Airline's Groups number at 1-800 426-1122. Our group name is [REDACTED] and the reservation number is [REDACTED]

Please allow me to take this opportunity to remind you to please send me your domestic travel itinerary to and from Newark Airport, once it's been booked, if you have not done so already. And please remember to send me your responses to our questionnaire and a digital photo (headshot), if you have not done so already.

Thank you!

Elise

Good morning Elise,

Yes I would love to participate. Thanks to you and Dena and everyone at ADL for understanding why I had to withdraw last year. I simply could not leave my city and colleagues at that critical time. Let me know what you need me to do and I look forward to seeing you all.

Have a great day!
Larry

C. COST FOR PARTICIPATION IN NCTS

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) will be responsible for the cost of airfare to and from Israel, transportation within Israel, hotel accommodations, and meals. Flights to and from Israel will depart from and return to Newark Liberty International Airport.

NOT INCLUDED: Cost of transportation to and from Newark Liberty International Airport, charges for items not on ADL's fixed menus, passport, visas, laundry, alcoholic beverages, meals other than those specified, mini bar items, room service, telephone calls, excess baggage charges, personal and baggage insurance, gratuities to the local guides for services not included in the program and any other items of a purely personal nature.

D. FLIGHT INFORMATION

July 7	United Airlines Flight #90	Depart Newark 10:50 PM	Arrive Tel Aviv 4:20 PM
July 14	United Airlines Flight #91	Depart Tel Aviv 11:10 PM	Arrive Newark 4:10 AM (On July 15)

E. VALID TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Participant shall be solely responsible, at Participant's own cost, for obtaining and maintaining a valid passport, having valid health insurance coverage, other insurance coverage, and if required, all necessary visas.

F. AIRLINE RESPONSIBILITIES

Airline equipment and routings are subject to change and will not result in any refunds. Flight delays, changes and cancellations are an inherent risk of any air travel. Participant(s) are subject to the ticket terms and tariffs of the airlines, which, when issued, shall be the sole contract between the airline and the Participant(s). Changes or cancellations by an airline for any reason shall be subject to the provisions of the contract of carriage set forth in the passenger tickets, baggage check and air way bills issued by the airline and its applicable tariffs, and in the provisions of applicable treaties and conventions.

G. ADL MODIFICATION

Participant hereby authorizes the Anti-Defamation League ("ADL") to alter or modify the itinerary, any arrangements, or any aspects of NCTS, at any time and from time to time, if ADL, in its sole discretion, deems it necessary or advisable, without the prior consent of or notice to the Participant.

H. CANCELLATION POLICY

Participant shall be responsible, and shall promptly reimburse ADL, for all costs, fees and other expenses incurred by ADL if Participant (i) cancels participation in NCTS, (ii) departs earlier or returns later than arranged for by ADL, or (iii) changes any travel, hotel, restaurant or other plans associated with NCTS. If Participant makes any such changes for any reason, Participant shall also be responsible for all costs, fees and other expenses of alternative transportation, hotel, restaurant and other modifications to NCTS arrangements that Participant chooses to make.

I. RELEASE AND HOLD HARMLESS

In consideration of joining the Program, and by registering for NCTS, Participant voluntarily assumes all risks associated with NCTS. Participant understands and agrees that ADL, Eshet Incoming and Isram World of Travel are intermediaries for other service providers and shall not be liable or responsible to Participant for breach of contract, failure to provide services, or any intentional or careless actions or omissions on the part of any provider of services (such as air carriage, hotel accommodations, ground transportation, meals, tours, cruises, guide services, etc.); and that ADL, Eshet Incoming and Isram World of Travel shall not be liable or responsible for any delay, theft, loss, damage, or injury sustained by Participant or Participant's property arising from any action, inaction, activity, condition or development, normal or abnormal, expected or unexpected, including, without limitation, terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or construction difficulties, diseases, local laws, climactic conditions, governmental acts, currency fluctuations, or any modification, curtailment, or cancellation, in whole or in part, of any of the arrangements pertaining to, or services to be provided for, or facilities to be furnished in connection with NCTS, or before or after NCTS if Participant chooses to extend Participant's trip, for whatever reason or cause. Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold each of ADL, Eshet Incoming and Isram World of Travel harmless from and against any claims Participant may have arising from or relating to any of the foregoing.

Participant acknowledges that Participant is aware of risks associated with NCTS, and that Participant is solely and individually responsible for obtaining appropriate insurance coverage against them.

J. MEDICAL CLEARANCE

Participant has consulted a physician of Participant's own choice and has been advised by such physician that Participant is in good health, does not suffer from any physical or mental ailment or disability which requires medical or surgical care or treatment, or which would make travel or participation in NCTS hazardous, unwise, unwarranted or a potential source of danger to Participant or others who may participate in NCTS or travel, eat or be sheltered with participants in NCTS. Participant does not have any information or knowledge as to Participant's physical or mental condition which Participant has not disclosed to said physician. If Participant is required to take any medications, or if Participant has any special instructions with regard to medications, allergies, etc. Participant is solely responsible for informing ADL of any special needs, but neither ADL nor Isram World of Travel shall have any liability or responsibility with respect to such special needs.

In the event of injury, incapacity or illness to Participant, ADL will use its best efforts to contact the emergency contact designee of Participant as soon as possible. However, if ADL is unable to contact the emergency contact designee named, or in case of an emergency, Participant authorizes ADL to consent to medical treatment on behalf of Participant. Participant agrees that it is Participant's responsibility to pay for medical treatment. Participant hereby assumes all risks associated with or arising from any such medical treatment and agrees to hold each of ADL and Isram World of Travel harmless from and against any claims Participant may have arising from or relating to such medical treatment.

K. PHOTO RELEASE

Participant hereby grants permission to ADL to photograph, film, audio or videotape, digitally image or otherwise record, reproduce or take any likeness of Participant in any medium, individually or with others, or otherwise in connection with NCTS ("Photographs"), and to record, reproduce or transcribe in any medium Participant's voice, comments, remarks, responses and other written or oral presentations or sound effects made by Participant ("Recordings"), and to use, publish, exhibit, display, copyright, license, sublicense, transfer, edit, disseminate, or in any other way use or exploit ("Publication") in any language, form or media, whether now or hereafter existing, without prior approval, the Photographs and Recordings, and any parts or excerpts thereof, with or without Participant's name associated therewith, and with or without the names or likenesses of any fictitious or other real persons, for any purpose whatsoever, including, without limitation, in connection with NCTS or otherwise, or the exhibition, theatrically, on film, television, or otherwise, of any production in which same may be used or incorporated, and the advertising, exploiting, or publicizing of any such production, and for any educational, commercial, fundraising, trade and pictorial art, or other purposes. Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold ADL harmless from any claims or liability for damages for libel, slander, invasion of privacy or other claims based on the Publication of any Photographs or Recordings. I further grant permission to ADL to use my story and/or personal account without further approval.

L. DEFINITIONS OF ADL, ISRAM WORLD OF TRAVEL AND ESHET INCOMING

Any references to ADL, Isram World of Travel, or Eshet Incoming or Isram World of Travel shall be deemed to include their subsidiaries and affiliates, as applicable, and the officers, commissioners, directors, trustees, employees, agents, successors, licensees, and assigns of all the foregoing, as applicable.

We will be holding a special 15th anniversary session of our acclaimed Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats from June 18-20, 2018 in Washington, DC. Please share the information attached and below with top law enforcement executives whom you'd recommend for the opportunity.

ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password [REDACTED]

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training. Headquartered in New York City, the League has a staff of more than 300 and a network of 26 regional offices.

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

ABOUT THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement agencies and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training.

Participation is by application only. For more information, please contact:

We will be holding a special 15th anniversary session of our acclaimed Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats from June 18-20, 2018 in Washington, DC. Please share the information attached and below with top law enforcement executives whom you'd recommend for the opportunity.

ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.

Elise,

I would like to recommend HPD Executive Assistant Chief Troy Finner. He has been so busy that he has not been able to attend in the past but would be an excellent candidate.

Thanks
Larry

Elise,

I would like to recommend HPD Executive Assistant Chief Troy Finner. He has been so busy that he has not been able to attend in the past but would be an excellent candidate.

Thanks
Larry

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

ABOUT THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement agencies and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training.

Participation is by application only. For more information, please contact:

Elise,

I would like to recommend HPD Executive Assistant Chief Troy Finner. He has been so busy that he has not been able to attend in the past but would be an excellent candidate.

Thanks
Larry

Good morning. This is just a friendly reminder that applications for the upcoming session of our Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats are due next week. If there is a candidate whom you'd like to recommend for the course, please send him/her the information and application link below, with a reminder that all applications must be received by the end of next week in order to be considered. We appreciate your help identifying strong candidates for the class. Thank you!

The next session of the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) Advanced Training School (ATS) course on extremist and terrorist threats will take place from June 18-20 in Washington, DC. ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password [REDACTED]

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training. Headquartered in New York City, the League has a staff of more than 300 and a network of 26 regional offices.

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

>> ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004.

>> § About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.

>> § Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.

>> § Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.

>> § Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.

 Please email your travel itinerary to Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org by no later than Friday, May 11. *****

Hotel Accommodations

Hotel accommodations for two nights (Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19) will be provided for all participants. (Local participants are encouraged to stay at the hotel to better accommodate a full ATS schedule.) All arrangements for overnight accommodations will be made through ADL. ADL will be responsible for the cost of overnight accommodations for Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19.

Note: If you are traveling from the West coast or are unable to arrange for a flight on Monday, June 18 that will enable you to get to the hotel by early afternoon, please let us know by Friday, May 11, and we will arrange for hotel accommodations for you for Sunday night, June 17 as well.**

Participants will be required to present a valid credit card to the hotel upon arrival and must settle all room incidentals directly with the hotel upon checkout.

Release, Waiver and Hold Harmless

Participant understands and agrees that ADL shall not be liable or responsible to Participant for any loss, theft, or damage that may be sustained with respect to any personal property of Participant, or for any loss, theft, or damage due to the modification, curtailment, or cancellation, in whole or in part, of any of the arrangements pertaining to, or services to be provided for, or facilities to be furnished in connection with, attendance by Participant in the Program, or before or after the Program if Participant chooses to extend his or her trip, for whatever reason or cause.

Participant understands and agrees that ADL assumes no responsibility whatsoever, and shall be held harmless by Participant, for the operation and management of any of the facilities which may be employed in connection with travel before, during, or after the Program, or with any facilities employed in connection with attending and participating in the Program. Participant further understands and agrees that ADL assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any bodily injury, property damage, or personal injury, or claim therefore, arising therefrom or in connection with the Program, and Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold ADL harmless from and against any such claim.

Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that ADL shall not be liable or responsible for any injuries, damages, or losses caused to Participant in connection with or arising from terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or construction difficulties, diseases, local laws, climatic conditions, abnormal conditions or developments during the Program, or any act, omission, or condition outside ADL's control. By embarking upon his or her journey, Participant voluntarily assumes all the risks involved in such travel, whether expected or unexpected. Participant is hereby warned of such risks, and is advised to obtain appropriate traveler insurance coverage against them. No tickets, reservations or bookings will be issued without signed acceptance of these conditions.

I hereby grant permission to the Anti-Defamation League, its subsidiaries and affiliates (ADL) to photograph, film, videotape or otherwise record me or my voice and use my picture, voice, silhouette and other reproductions of my physical likeness (as the same may appear in any still camera photograph, motion picture film, videotape and/or Web or Internet-based use) in connection with the above event in and in connection with the exhibition, theatrically, on television, or otherwise, of any production in which same may be used or incorporated, and also in the advertising, exploiting, or publicizing of any such production, including but not limited to television, theatrical motion pictures, video, Web or Internet-based publications. I also grant ADL the right to publish, exhibit, display, copyright, license, transfer, edit, or in any other way use (publish) in any form without prior approval, any photographs taken at the above event, for any purpose whatsoever, including without limitation educational, commercial, trade and pictorial art, with or without my name or any other identification and with or without the names of any other real or fictitious persons. I further give ADL the right to reproduce in any manner whatsoever any recordings made by ADL of my voice and all instrumental, musical, or other sound effects produced by me. I hereby release ADL and the officers, directors, employees, agents, members, associates, successors, licensees, and assigns of ADL from any and all liability for damages for libel, slander, invasion of privacy or any other claims based on the publication of such photographs, or recordings. My attendance at this event indicates that I understand the foregoing and fully understand the meaning and effect thereof and, intend to be legally bound.

A final note to participants: ADL advises against participants being accompanied by family members or companions. The Advanced Training School is an intense program that leaves virtually no "free" time or time for sightseeing.

Participant Commitment

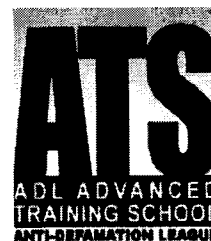

It is important that each participant reserve his/her space by making a signed commitment to attend. Your signature below commits you as a participant for this program.

The undersigned has read and fully understands all terms of the above and hereby accepts unconditionally the conditions and provisions herein.

Please keep a copy of this form for your records and send a completed, hand-signed copy to Elise Jarvis via email at ejarvis@adl.org

The following information is confidential.

Congratulations on your acceptance to the Anti-Defamation League's Advanced Training School (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats. We look forward to your participation in the course.

Starting and Ending Times

Course registration will take place on Monday, June 18 at 2:00 pm (Eastern Time) at the Mayflower Hotel. You will want to arrive early to check-in to the hotel prior to registration. The first session will begin promptly at 2:30 pm on Monday. The course will conclude on Wednesday, June 20 by 4:00 pm.

Transportation to and from Washington, DC

For participants traveling by plane, you will want to book your flights arriving in Washington by 12:30 pm on Monday, June 18, and departing no earlier than 6:00 pm on Wednesday, June 20.

Please email your travel itinerary to Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org by no later than Friday, May 11. *****

The closest airport is Reagan National Airport (DCA), which is about 5 miles from the hotel. A taxi from the airport to the hotel will cost you about $18. (You also have the option of taking the subway ("Metro"), which will cost about $2.)

The next closest airport is Dulles (IAD), which is about 25 miles from the hotel. A taxi will cost about $65. The airport shuttle service will cost $29. (Just bear in mind that it may make several stops, and might not take you the fastest, most direct way to your hotel.)

Baltimore/Washington International (BWI) Airport is also an option, although it is located about 35 miles from the hotel. A taxi will cost about $70. The airport shuttle service will charge $37. (Again, it may make several stops, and might not take you the fastest, most direct way to your hotel.)

Hotel Accommodations

All participants will stay at the Mayflower Hotel (1127 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036). ADL will make your reservation for you. Hotel accommodations for two nights (Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19) will be provided.

The following information is confidential.

If you are traveling from the West coast or are unable to arrange for a flight on Monday, June 18 that will enable you to get to the hotel by early afternoon, please let us know by May 11 and, if necessary, we will arrange for hotel accommodations for you on Sunday night, June 17 as well.***

The hotel will require a copy of your credit card upon check in. You will NOT be charged for the cost of the room. You will only be charged for any telephone, internet, or hotel services you elect to use during your stay.

Meals

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided to ATS participants during the course of the training program. If you have any food allergies or special dietary needs, please notify Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org and we will do our best to accommodate your diet.

Attire

Dress for ATS participants is business casual throughout the course. No jeans please.

 Please email your travel itinerary to Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org by no later than Friday, May 11. *****

Hotel Accommodations

Hotel accommodations for two nights (Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19) will be provided for all participants. (Local participants are encouraged to stay at the hotel to better accommodate a full ATS schedule.) All arrangements for overnight accommodations will be made through ADL. ADL will be responsible for the cost of overnight accommodations for Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19.

Note: If you are traveling from the West coast or are unable to arrange for a flight on Monday, June 18 that will enable you to get to the hotel by early afternoon, please let us know by Friday, May 11, and we will arrange for hotel accommodations for you for Sunday night, June 17 as well.***

Participants will be required to present a valid credit card to the hotel upon arrival and must settle all room incidentals directly with the hotel upon checkout.

Release, Waiver and Hold Harmless

Participant understands and agrees that ADL shall not be liable or responsible to Participant for any loss, theft, or damage that may be sustained with respect to any personal property of Participant, or for any loss, theft, or damage due to the modification, curtailment, or cancellation, in whole or in part, of any of the arrangements pertaining to, or services to be provided for, or facilities to be furnished in connection with, attendance by Participant in the Program, or before or after the Program if Participant chooses to extend his or her trip, for whatever reason or cause.

Participant understands and agrees that ADL assumes no responsibility whatsoever, and shall be held harmless by Participant, for the operation and management of any of the facilities which may be employed in connection with travel before, during, or after the Program, or with any facilities employed in connection with attending and participating in the Program. Participant further understands and agrees that ADL assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any bodily injury, property damage, or personal injury, or claim therefore, arising therefrom or in connection with the Program, and Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold ADL harmless from and against any such claim.

Participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that ADL shall not be liable or responsible for any injuries, damages, or losses caused to Participant in connection with or arising from terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or construction difficulties, diseases, local laws, climatic conditions, abnormal conditions or developments during the Program, or any act, omission, or condition outside ADL's control. By embarking upon his or her journey, Participant voluntarily assumes all the risks involved in such travel, whether expected or unexpected. Participant is hereby warned of such risks, and is advised to obtain appropriate traveler insurance coverage against them. No tickets, reservations or bookings will be issued without signed acceptance of these conditions.

I hereby grant permission to the Anti-Defamation League, its subsidiaries and affiliates (ADL) to photograph, film, videotape or otherwise record me or my voice and use my picture, voice, silhouette and other reproductions of my physical likeness (as the same may appear in any still camera photograph, motion picture film, videotape and/or Web or Internet-based use) in connection the above event in and in connection with the exhibition, theatrically, on television, or otherwise, of any production in which same may be used or incorporated, and also in the advertising, exploiting, or publicizing of any such production, including but not limited to television, theatrical motion pictures, video, Web or Internet-based publications. I also grant ADL the right to publish, exhibit, display, copyright, license, transfer, edit, or in any other way use (publish) in any form without prior approval, any photographs taken at the above event, for any purpose whatsoever, including without limitation educational, commercial, trade and pictorial art, with or without my name or any other identification and with or without the names of any other real or fictitious persons. I further give ADL the right to reproduce in any manner whatsoever any recordings made by ADL of my voice and all instrumental, musical, or other sound effects produced by me. I hereby release ADL and the officers, directors, employees, agents, members, associates, successors, licensees, and assigns of ADL from any and all liability for damages for libel, slander, invasion of privacy or any other claims based on the publication of such photographs, or recordings. My attendance at this event indicates that I understand the foregoing and fully understand the meaning and effect thereof and, intend to be legally bound.

A final note to participants: ADL advises against participants being accompanied by family members or companions. The Advanced Training School is an intense program that leaves virtually no "free" time or time for sightseeing.

Participant Commitment

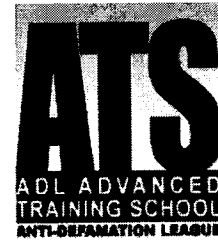

It is important that each participant reserve his/her space by making a signed commitment to attend. Your signature below commits you as a participant for this program.

The undersigned has read and fully understands all terms of the above and hereby accepts unconditionally the conditions and provisions herein.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please keep a copy of this form for your records and send a completed, hand-signed copy to Elise Jarvis via email at ejarvis@adl.org

The following information is confidential.

Congratulations on your acceptance to the Anti-Defamation League's Advanced Training School (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats. We look forward to your participation in the course.

Starting and Ending Times

Course registration will take place on Monday, June 18 at 2:00 pm (Eastern Time) at the Mayflower Hotel. You will want to arrive early to check-in to the hotel prior to registration. The first session will begin promptly at 2:30 pm on Monday. The course will conclude on Wednesday, June 20 by 4:00 pm.

Transportation to and from Washington, DC

For participants traveling by plane, you will want to book your flights arriving in Washington by 12:30 pm on Monday, June 18, and departing no earlier than 6:00 pm on Wednesday, June 20.

Please email your travel itinerary to Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org by no later than Friday, May 11.**

The closest airport is Reagan National Airport (DCA), which is about 5 miles from the hotel. A taxi from the airport to the hotel will cost you about $18. (You also have the option of taking the subway ("Metro"), which will cost about $2.)

The next closest airport is Dulles (IAD), which is about 25 miles from the hotel. A taxi will cost about $65. The airport shuttle service will cost $29. (Just bear in mind that it may make several stops, and might not take you the fastest, most direct way to your hotel.)

Baltimore/Washington International (BWI) Airport is also an option, although it is located about 35 miles from the hotel. A taxi will cost about $70. The airport shuttle service will charge $37. (Again, it may make several stops, and might not take you the fastest, most direct way to your hotel.)

Hotel Accommodations

All participants will stay at the Mayflower Hotel (1127 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036). ADL will make your reservation for you. Hotel accommodations for two nights (Monday, June 18 and Tuesday, June 19) will be provided.

The following information is confidential.

If you are traveling from the West coast or are unable to arrange for a flight on Monday, June 18 that will enable you to get to the hotel by early afternoon, please let us know by May 11 and, if necessary, we will arrange for hotel accommodations for you on Sunday night, June 17 as well.***

The hotel will require a copy of your credit card upon check in. You will NOT be charged for the cost of the room. You will only be charged for any telephone, internet, or hotel services you elect to use during your stay.

Meals

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided to ATS participants during the course of the training program. If you have any food allergies or special dietary needs, please notify Elise Jarvis at ejarvis@adl.org and we will do our best to accommodate your diet.

Attire

Dress for ATS participants is business casual throughout the course. No jeans please.

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) invites law enforcement leaders to join us for a webinar briefing on

A Homegrown Threat: Islamist Extremist Plots in the United States

Wednesday, May 16, 2018

11:00-11:30 am (EST)

Join us for a webinar briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism, focusing on the trajectory of Islamist extremist plots in the U.S. since 2002. It will include an overview of evolving trends drawn from an analysis of 98 Islamist extremist plots and attacks in the United States over the past 16 years. Among the key findings, we note that the most significant threat does not come from individuals residing outside U.S. borders; instead, the terrorism tends to be homegrown, strongly influenced by pervasive propaganda from virtual terrorist networks.

Click here to register. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

This call is closed to media and members of the press.

A Homegrown Threat: Islamist Extremist Plots in the U.S.

Wednesday, May 16, 2018
11:00 am-11:30 am Eastern

Join us for a briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism, focusing on the trajectory of Islamist extremist plots in the United States since 2002. It will include an overview of evolving trends drawn from an analysis of 98 Islamist extremist plots and attacks in the U.S. over the past 16 years. Among the key findings, we note that the most significant threat does not come from individuals residing outside U.S. borders; instead, the terrorism tends to be homegrown, strongly influenced by pervasive propaganda from virtual terrorist networks.

Good morning. We are delighted you'll be participating in our National Counter-Terrorism Seminar in Israel, taking place from July 7-15, and look forward to the trip. While ADL is providing airfare between the United States and Israel (as well as hotel accommodations, ground transportation, and meals within Israel), each participant will be responsible for providing their own transportation between their city of origin and Newark Airport. Below are some considerations for booking your transportation to and from Newark Airport. Please email me a copy of your domestic travel itinerary, once you know it.

- You will want to arrive at Newark Airport at least three (3) hours prior to our departure for Tel Aviv (which is scheduled for Saturday, July 7 at 10:50pm Eastern).
- You will want to check that there are flights that could still get you into Newark in time to catch our connection to Tel Aviv, should the one you plan on booking yourself on happen to get cancelled or delayed. (It would be a shame to miss our flight to Tel Aviv because of complications getting to Newark.)
- You will want to book your return flight allowing enough time to clear Customs and Immigration in Newark. (Our flight is scheduled to land at Newark on Sunday, July 15 at 4:10am Eastern.)
- Depending on your location of origin, some participants may want to consider traveling to Newark Airport via Amtrak, which stops right at the airport. (Sometimes trains are subject to fewer delays than flights.)

We look forward to the trip and to your participation in the course. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Notice of Baggage Liability Limitations - For domestic travel between points within the United States (except for domestic portions of international journeys), United's liability for loss of, damage to, or delay in delivery of a customer's checked baggage is limited to $3,500 per ticketed customer unless a higher value is declared in advance and additional charges are paid (not applicable to wheelchairs or other assistive devices). For such travel, United assumes no liability for high value, fragile, perishable, or otherwise excluded items; excess valuation may not be declared on certain types of valuable articles. Further information may be obtained from the carrier. For international travel governed by the Warsaw Convention (including the domestic portions of the trip), maximum liability is approximately 640 USD per bag for checked baggage, and 400 USD per passenger for unchecked baggage. For international travel governed by the Montreal Convention (including the domestic portions of the trip), maximum liability is 1,131 SDRs per passenger for baggage, whether checked or unchecked. For baggage lost, delayed, or damaged in connection with domestic travel, United requires that customers provide preliminary notice within 24 hours after arrival of the flight on which the baggage was or was to be transported and submit a written claim within 45 days of the flight. For baggage damaged or delayed in connection with most international travel (including domestic portions of international journeys), the Montreal Convention and United require customers to provide carriers written notice as follows: (a) for damaged baggage, within seven days from the date of receipt of the damaged baggage; (b) for delayed baggage, within 21 days from the date the baggage should have been returned to the customer. Please refer to Rule 28 of United's Contract of Carriage for important information relating to baggage and other limitations of liability.

☒ Description:

Notice of Incorporated Terms - Transportation is subject to the terms and conditions of United's Contract of Carriage, which are incorporated herein by reference. Incorporated terms may include, but are not limited to: 1. Limits on liability for personal injury or death of the customer, and for loss, damage, or delay of goods and baggage, including high value, fragile, perishable, or otherwise excluded items. 2. Claims restrictions, including time periods within which customers must file a claim or bring an action against the carrier. 3. Rights of the carrier to change terms of the contract. 4. Rules about reconfirmation of reservations, check-in times, and refusal to carry. 5. Rights of the carrier and limits on liability for delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of an alternate air carrier or aircraft, and rerouting. The full text of United's Contract of Carriage is available at united.com or you may request a copy at any United ticket counter. Passengers have the right, upon request at any location where United's tickets are sold within the United States, to receive free of charge by mail or other delivery service the full text of United's Contract of Carriage.

Notice of Certain Terms - If you have purchased a restricted ticket, depending on the rules applicable to the fare paid, one or more restrictions including, but not limited to, the following may apply to your travel: (1) the ticket may not be refundable but can be exchanged for a fee for another restricted fare ticket meeting all the rules/restrictions of the original ticket (including the payment of any difference in fares); (2) a fee may apply for changing/canceling reservations; or (3) select tickets may not be eligible for refunds or changes even for a fee; (4) select tickets have no residual value and cannot be applied towards the purchase of future travel; or (5) travel may be restricted to specific flights and/ or times and a minimum and/or maximum stay may be required. United reserves the right to refuse carriage to any person who has acquired a ticket in violation of any United tariffs, rules, or regulations, or in violation of any applicable national, federal, state, or local law, order, regulation, or ordinance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you are entitled to a full refund if you cancel a ticket purchased at least a week prior to departure within 24 hours of purchase.

Notice of Boarding Times - For Domestic flights, customers must be at the boarding gate at least 15 minutes prior to scheduled departure. For International flights, customers must be at the boarding gate at least 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure. The time limits provided by United in this Notice are minimum time requirements. Customer and baggage processing times may differ from airport to airport. Please visit united.com for information regarding airport-specific boarding times. It is the customer's responsibility to arrive at the airport with enough time to complete check-in, baggage, and security screening processes within these minimum time limits. Please be sure to check flight information monitors for the correct boarding gate and the departure time of your flight. Failure to be at the boarding gate by the required time could result in the loss of your seat without compensation, regardless of whether you are already checked in or have a confirmed seat and boarding pass.

Notice - Overbooking of Flights - Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for compensation of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, including failure to comply with the carrier's check-in deadlines, which are available upon request from the air carrier, persons, denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules for the payment of compensation and each airline's boarding priorities are available at all airport ticket counters and boarding locations. Some airlines do not apply these consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other consumer protections may be available. Check with your airline or your travel agent.

Good morning. We will be assembling a booklet featuring the participants in our upcoming National Counter-Terrorism Seminar (NCTS) in Israel. I'm asking each of you to take just a few minutes to answer the attached questions, and to return them to me via email with a digital photo (headshot) by Thursday, May 31. The idea is to help get to know each other a little better, in advance of the trip. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions. We thank you in advance for your participation. Elise

For your awareness, I wanted to inform you that our international flights have now been ticketed. Because these were purchased as a group, seat changes cannot be made online. If you would like to locate your seat and/or request any changes to your seat assignment, you may do so by calling United Airline's Groups number at 1-800 426-1122. Our group name is NCTS and the reservation number is [REDACTED]

Please allow me to take this opportunity to remind you to please send me your domestic travel itinerary to and from Newark Airport, once it's been booked, if you have not done so already. And please remember to send me your responses to our questionnaire and a digital photo (headshot), if you have not done so already.

Thank you!

On behalf of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), I would like to welcome you to the newly launched ADL Law Enforcement Executives' Alumni Network. The Alumni Network was created exclusively for law enforcement leaders who have graduated from one or more of ADL's national law enforcement programs and is designed for continued access to our resources, programs and events. We look forward to your participation in our alumni activities.

Benefits will include:

- Access to virtual briefings and webinars from renowned experts from ADL and law enforcement on critical issues, including: extremism, terrorism, hate crimes, leadership, police community relations, and trust building;
- Previews of new ADL resources and reports on the latest trends we are tracking in extremism, terrorism, and hate;
- New training opportunities to assist law enforcement in managing implicit bias and building trust with the communities you serve;
- Information on best practices and innovations in preventing and responding hate crimes;
- Invitations to ADL gatherings at major law enforcement conferences and events;
- Opportunities to connect and engage with other members of the Alumni Network;
- Opportunities to recommend colleagues for future sessions of ADL's national law enforcement programs;
- And access to resources and support through ADL's network of 26 Regional Offices.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions, and to let us know additional ways that we can be of assistance or service to you, your agency and our program alumni.

We look forward to continuing our work together towards the goal of increasing the security of our nation and the safety of its communities.

Sincerely,

Elise

We are pleased to invite members of ADL's newly launched Law Enforcement Executives' Alumni Network to join us via live stream broadcast for a special panel discussion on Leadership in a Time of Terror, taking place on Tuesday, June 19, from 3:30-4:45pm Eastern. Hear from law enforcement executives about their firsthand experiences and lessons learned in responding to attacks over the past several years that have shaped this country's consciousness of terror. The conversation will take place as part of the fifteenth anniversary session of ADL's Advanced Training School (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats, which is ADL's flagship counterterrorism training program for law enforcement executives and commanders from around the country. The course is designed to provide information, resources and contacts to increase your capabilities in combating extremist and terrorist threats. We hope you will join us then. Click here to register. Enter password: [REDACTED] (Please note the password is case-sensitive.)

Subject: Welcome to the ADL Alumni Network

On behalf of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), I would like to welcome you to the newly launched ADL Law Enforcement Executives' Alumni Network. The Alumni Network was created exclusively for law enforcement leaders who have graduated from one or more of ADL's national law enforcement programs and is designed for continued access to our resources, programs and events. We look forward to your participation in our alumni activities.

Benefits will include:

8/22/2018

- Access to virtual briefings and webinars from renowned experts from ADL and law enforcement on critical issues, including: extremism, terrorism, hate crimes, leadership, police community relations, and trust building;
- Previews of new ADL resources and reports on the latest trends we are tracking in extremism, terrorism, and hate;
- New training opportunities to assist law enforcement in managing implicit bias and building trust with the communities you serve;
- Information on best practices and innovations in preventing and responding hate crimes;
- Invitations to ADL gatherings at major law enforcement conferences and events;
- Opportunities to connect and engage with other members of the Alumni Network;
- Opportunities to recommend colleagues for future sessions of ADL's national law enforcement programs;
- And access to resources and support through ADL's network of 26 Regional Offices.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions, and to let us know additional ways that we can be of assistance or service to you, your agency and our program alumni.

We look forward to continuing our work together towards the goal of increasing the security of our nation and the safety of its communities.

Sincerely,

Elise

Good morning. We look forward to your participation in the 2018 ADL National Counter-Terrorism Seminar (NCTS) in Israel. Attached, please find:

- A document with general information in preparation for the trip, including our hotel information and a suggested packing list
- A participant roster
- The booklet we created, featuring participants, as a way of helping to get to know each other a bit better in advance of the trip

Please review the roster and let me know by the end of the week if there are any changes to how your information appears, so that we may edit it accordingly in advance of the program.

Looking forward to having you join us and to the seminar!

WEATHER

The average high and low temperatures in Israel in July range from 66-84° F in Jerusalem, 73-84° F in Tel Aviv, and 77-100° F in northern Israel near Lake Tiberias. We also recommend checking the forecast a few days before departure.

SUGGESTED PACKING LIST

Israel is a casual country and most of our activities and meals will be informal. Casual pants and golf shirts, or the equivalent, will be perfect for most days. We also recommend bringing one more formal outfit (pants, a button down shirt, and sports jacket, or the equivalent). You may leave your business suits and uniforms at home.

You will want to bring:

Your passport and airline itinerary

Any necessary medications

Comfortable pants

Short sleeve shirts

One formal outfit (pants, a button down shirt, and sports jacket, or the equivalent)

Shorts

A pair of jeans

A long sleeve shirt (for cooler evenings)

Comfortable shoes for walking

A bathing suit (There may be an opportunity to use one.)

Sunscreen

Sunglasses

A hat or cap

Camera

Electrical adapters and/or transformers

A small day pack to carry items you need for the day

We will also be visiting several holy/religious sites where modest dress (covered shoulders and knees) is recommended.

We will be collecting challenge coins and patches to frame as gifts for the donors who have underwritten the program. If you could please bring 2 coins from your agency specifically for that purpose, it would be greatly appreciated.

You may also want to bring challenge coins, patches, lapel pins, etc. for the Israel Police commanders and other individuals whom we will meet throughout the week. It is very likely that they will have the same for you. (Note: If you would like to bring items for them, please bring them with you. Do NOT ship ahead.) We recommend 15-20.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT TRAVELING TO ISRAEL

Passports and Visas:

Travelers to Israel are required to have a passport valid at least six months from their date of entry.

Travelers carrying personal passports do not need to obtain a visa. However, travelers using an official US passport, traveling on official business of the US government, do need to obtain a visa.

Time Change:

You may refer to: <http://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/>

Money and Credit Cards:

The New Israeli Shekel is the currency of Israel. ATMs and banks are widely available for currency exchange. All major credit cards should also be accepted at hotels and restaurants.

Electricity:

Israel operates at 220 volts. It is recommended that you bring adaptors and/or transformers for all electrical appliances (cell phone, laptop, camera) from the United States for use while traveling. Most hotels should have them available for guests as well.

Phone Service:

From USA to Jerusalem, dial 011 + 972 (Israel Country Code) + 2 (Jerusalem City Code) + phone/fax number.

From USA to Tel Aviv, dial 011 + 972 (Israel Country Code) + 3 (Tel Aviv City Code) + phone/fax number.

From Israel to USA, 001 + area code + phone number

Travel Health:

No vaccinations are required when traveling to Israel but you should discuss any and all recommendations directly with your physician. The Center for Disease Control provides a detailed list of vaccine recommendations for all countries at <http://www.cdc.gov/travel/>. We also strongly suggest you visit your physician prior to traveling for any medications you might require. Please bring filled prescriptions with you while traveling.

Anthony Campbell

Agency: New Haven Police Department

Title/Position: Chief of Police

Hobbies/Interests: Movies, Running, Reading, Science

Favorite Sports Team: UConn Huskies Women's Team

Why did you go into law enforcement? To serve the entire community and provide safety and health

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Prison Ministry

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 20 years.

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Being the Chief and preparing the next generation of leadership to take over my position and to serve the community in a greater capacity. This will ensure that my children and their children will be treated with dignity, honor, and respect in a safe environment

What was your best day on the job? July 7th, 2017- As the Chief, I promoted 35 Supervisors in the New Haven Police Department's largest promotional ceremony in the Department's history.

Worst day on the job? On March 16th, 2006 I was intentionally hit by a car and part of a fence by a fleeing felon and almost lost my life. My injuries paralyzed me on my right side for almost two years but I was able to recover fully.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? Obtaining high level training to help keep my community safe and seeing how training in an outside cultural setting can influence my life point of view

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level? Being in an environment where Jesus once lived and worked and seeing a culture filled with one of the richest historical sites in the world

Title/Position: Executive Assistant Chief

Hobbies/Interests: I'm a sports fanatic. I love to run and play golf and I'm very serious about my gardening.

Favorite Sports Team: Collegiately, the Arizona Wildcats. Professionally, the Arizona Cardinals.

Why did you go into law enforcement? I grew up around law enforcement and my family and teachers instilled a spirit of service in me from a very young age. It was either law enforcement or medicine and I chose law enforcement, much to my mother's chagrin.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Practicing medicine.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 28 years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Serving on a Neighborhood Enforcement Team for 6+ years. I was on a team that worked with the community and other law enforcement partners to jointly identify problems and find solutions. The team conducted gang, drug, and prostitution enforcement; wrote and served hundreds of search warrants; and rode police bicycles when appropriate. You name it and the squad did it which is why it was by far the best assignment of my career.

What was your best day on the job? The day I met the woman that would eventually become my wife.

Worst day on the job? There are two, May 19, 2013 and May 19, 2016. On those dates, officers that I had the honor of serving with were killed in the line of duty.

Why did you go into law enforcement? I wanted to contribute to the shaping of the profession from the inside.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? I'd be working somewhere in the realm of social psychology or corporate social responsibility.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 20 Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Patrol Sergeant- I had the ability to be on the ground with my team as I taught and learned from others. I also had the ability to turn off my work phone at the end of the day.

What was your best day on the job? The day I was sworn in as a police officer.

Worst day on the job? Worst day was when several of my colleagues were murdered in one day.

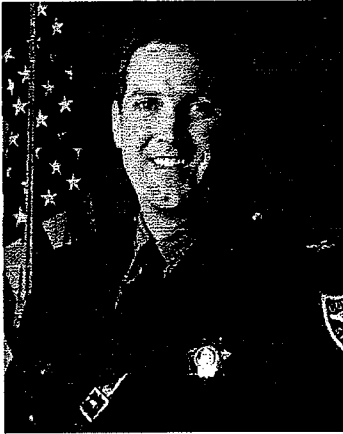

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level?

I am excited to learn how culture and/or expectations change in different regions of the world.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level?

There is so much to learn from the diversity brought by others (i.e. thoughts, perspectives, problem-solving, etc.). I want to know what makes people smile in Israel. Different or the same as in the US?

Matt Packard

Agency: Colorado State Patrol

Title/Position: Colonel / Chief

Hobbies/Interests: Enjoy playing and watching my family and friends play volleyball and basketball

Favorite Sports Team: Denver Broncos

Why did you go into law enforcement? I had and continue to have a strong desire to serve my community and do my part to make things at least a little better.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Tough question for sure, never had a desire to do anything else. My degree is in accounting so I would reluctantly head down that path.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 18 years, all with the Colorado State Patrol

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

I have had several great positions. My favorite and most rewarding was serving as a member of our Vehicular Crimes Unit, then known as the Accident Reconstruction Team. I had the opportunity to be a one stop shop; a patrol guy, crime scene guy, detective and work with victims. Was truly rewarding to be able to explain to the family of a victim what happened in the incident that took away their loved one.

What was your best day on the job? I have had lots of really good days, hard to pick one. I still remember like it was yesterday the first time I saw my reflection in a storefront window driving my first patrol car in uniform. Still an incredible feeling of pride and accomplishment.

Worst day on the job? Without question, notifying the husband of my Trooper that she had been killed in the line of duty.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level?

I am very excited to learn more about how Israel addresses homeland defense and incident response, particularly from a command perspective. I am also very excited to meet and interact with other law enforcement executives from around the United States and Israel.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level? I very much enjoy history and the opportunity to visit the area of the world where so much of the history I have read about my entire life started is an incredible opportunity. Very excited is a bit of an understatement!

Juan Perez

Agency: Miami-Dade Police Department

Title/Position: Police Director

Hobbies/Interests: Fitness

Favorite Sports Team: Miami Dolphins

Why did you go into law enforcement? I believe law enforcement is a calling. I was naturally drawn to the profession and have a passion for serving others.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Military Service

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 28 Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

My assignment to the Crime Suppression Team was my favorite assignment because of the duties and ability to lead a team.

What was your best day on the job? My best day was highlighted by the pinning of my badge in the presence of my parents.

Worst day on the job? My worst day was the loss of one of my officers after being shot multiple times.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? On a professional level, I look forward to the opportunity to learn about counter-terrorism measures and the many lessons learned as Israel deals with safeguarding the Nation.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level?

On a personal level, I am looking forward to meeting and speaking to the people of Israel and learning about the character of the Nation. In addition, I look forward to visiting the many religious historical sites.

Mike Redmond

Agency: San Francisco Police Department

Title/Position: Deputy Chief/Field Operations Bureau

Hobbies/Interests: I have four teenage boys (ages 18, 17 and twin 14 year olds) that are all active in sports. I enjoy watching them all play various sports. I also like to walk and enjoy entertaining friends with good drinks and food.

Favorite Sports Team: Golden State Warriors

Why did you go into law enforcement? I am a 3rd generation San Franciscan and as we say my family business has been public safety. I have many family members that have served San Francisco in the police, fire, sheriffs, district attorney and city attorney's offices. I went into law enforcement to be in a position to help people and make my community safer. I also went into law enforcement to try and help people (especially children and young adults) that may be heading in the wrong direction in life, turn their lives around by putting them on a better path.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? I have no idea because since I was young it was the only thing I wanted to do. Maybe coaching basketball.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? I have worked for the San Francisco Police Department for 25 years.

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why? In looking back on my career my best assignment was working in an undercover street crimes unit at one of our district stations. In this assignment, the people I worked with were a close knit team where we all brought different experiences to the table that made the team very high functioning and competitive. We not only made a lot of arrests but were also very involved in the community we worked in.

What was your best day on the job? Graduating the Police Academy and becoming a San Francisco Police Officer.

Worst day on the job? The worst days on the job have been when we have lost members in the line of duty, friends of mine.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level?

I am looking forward to all of the seminar topics and how to better prevent, plan, respond and lead during times of terror incidents.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level? I am looking forward to my first trip to Israel and seeing the beautiful city of Tel Aviv.

Anthony Riccio

Agency: Chicago Police Department

Title/Position: First Deputy Superintendent

Hobbies/Interests: Hiking; fishing; golf; movies; history

Favorite Sports Team: Chicago Bears!

Why did you go into law enforcement? I think it was genetic. My father was a police officer for 38 years.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? If I wasn't in law enforcement I would flip houses for a living!

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 34 Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why? My favorite assignment in law enforcement would have to be my time as a detective. The position of detective allows us to personally know the victim, follow the case from the occurrence of the crime, to the sentence in court.

What was your best day on the job? My best day on the job was the day I was sworn in as a new police officer. My parents were there and beaming with pride.

Worst day on the job? Police funerals. Every one of them.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? I'm most looking forward to seeing how Israel is able to provide security to its public places despite so many people wanting to do them harm.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level? On a personal level I would love to see the historic and religious sites that are such an important part of all of our lives.

Eddie Rivero

Agency: Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department

Title/Position: Assistant Sheriff

Hobbies/Interests: Baseball and spending time in my yard

Favorite Sports Team: Dodgers

Why did you go into law enforcement? I have always wanted to make a positive impact on peoples' lives.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? I would have become an attorney.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 28 Years and 4 Months

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Being the captain of Carson Sheriff's Station because I had the ability to share in the success of our deputy sheriffs. We created strong bonds with our community.

What was your best day on the job? February 9, 1990 was the best day in my career. I started my career on this day, and every day since then has been a Blessing.

Worst day on the job? Seeing senseless violence on a family where 4 people lost their lives in early 1996 (two were very young).

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? I am looking forward to understanding terrorism from a global perspective.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level?

I am looking forward to visiting the Holy Land.

Larry Satterwhite

Agency: Houston Police Department

Title/Position: Assistant Chief-Homeland Security

Hobbies/Interests: Team Sports, Sociology, Physical Fitness

Favorite Sports Team: Houston Texans, Astros, & Rockets

Why did you go into law enforcement? Make a Difference

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Coach Football

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 28+ Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

My current assignment is my favorite as I can make the most impact and I get to work with law enforcement and private sector stakeholders around the world.

What was your best day on the job? Everyday a life is saved and made better and especially when my actions directly contributed to that outcome.

Worst day on the job? In 1999, I lost a friend in the line of duty. I was behind a fence when he was shot. I was able to capture the person who killed him but was not there in time to save my friend. Two years later we were unable to stop a man from killing nearly his entire family including his small children. I will never forget those days.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? I am looking forward to the relationships with colleagues engaged in protecting innocent life in the nation of Israel. I know that I will learn from this experience and hope that I can also share and contribute in a way that will positively impact those I come in contact with.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level? Israel has always been a place I have wanted to visit. I admire the perseverance and strength of the people of Israel. The historical impact of the region on the world cannot be understated.

Scott Schubert

Agency: Pittsburgh Bureau of Police

Title/Position: Chief of Police

Hobbies/Interests: Photography, Running, History, and Special Olympics (Current Pennsylvania Law Enforcement Torch Run Director)

Favorite Sports Team: Pittsburgh Steelers

Why did you go into law enforcement? My late father was a Pittsburgh Police Officer

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? Photography or Teaching

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 26 Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Chief of Police – Living a dream, plus I love interacting with our officers & community

What was your best day on the job? Having my father pin on my badge

Worst day on the job? April 4, 2009 – Three PBP officers were killed in the line of duty

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? To learn how Israel deals with the constant threat of terrorism and how they use intelligence to predict and deter attacks. I am also looking forward to learning about local policing initiatives.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level?

To learn more about Israel and the people. I think it will also be a deep & rewarding religious experience for me as well.

LaTasha Watson

Agency: Henderson Police Department

Title/Position: Chief of Police

Hobbies/Interests: I enjoy international travel as well as reading. I enjoy listening to music and dancing. My favorite hobby is SHOPPING!

Favorite Sports Team: Dallas Cowboys

Why did you go into law enforcement? I have always been interested in some form of the law. While growing up, it was believed that I would be an attorney.

What would you be doing if you weren't in law enforcement? I would be in the fashion industry.

How many years have you been in law enforcement? 22+ Years

What has been your favorite assignment in your law enforcement career and why?

Being selected by the Chief of Police to be a part of the departmental Executive Officer (XO) Program as one of the departmental SWAT commanders was the best assignment. The assignment was out of my comfort zone and challenged me the most. Although I believed that the strongest SWAT commanders had a SWAT background, the Chief of Police selected me for the position illustrating his point that the strongest decision makers are the best SWAT commanders. I learned more than I ever realized I would in that role.

What was your best day on the job? I have had numerous best days! Every day that I positively impact anyone's life is a great day.

Worst day on the job? My worst days on the job have been losing fellow officers who have been killed in the line of duty. One of my police academy classmates was killed on his motorcycle while working after being run over. Another fellow officer was killed while taking a domestic assault report when the estranged boyfriend returned to the location to kill the victim and her child.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a professional level? I am looking forward to the interactions with the other law enforcement executives as well as the training and development we will receive throughout the duration of the trip.

What are you most looking forward to about traveling to Israel, on a personal level?

Traveling abroad provides an opportunity to gain new skills by learning from the community. The cultural experience will allow us to become acquainted with their respective customs, food, climate, activities, and religious heritage. I have visited Brazil, Argentina, Germany, China, and the Dominican Republic but not Israel.

ADL Staff

Technology

Rafail Portnoy is currently a Senior Vice President of Technology at Anti-Defamation League, world's premiere international civil rights organization, focused on stopping defamation of Jewish people, and securing justice and fair treatment for all. ADL operates across 27 regional offices in United States and Israel. At ADL, Rafail is responsible for transforming Anti-Defamation League into a 21st century digital organization, inscribing technology DNA into every operational component of ADL.

Some of his key accomplishments at ADL are:

- Created an agency-wide IT blue print, developed budget, defined and established new standards, obtained external funding and successfully executed comprehensive technology consolidation strategy across applications and infrastructure domains.
- Spearheaded automation of many ADL operational processes, including First Of A Kind automated Anti-Semitic Incident Management system and First Of A Kind fully interactive ADL Hate Crime Map
- Transformed the way ADL conducts business through the implementation of integrated Marketing, Constituent Management, Advocacy and Social mining CRM Action! Enterprise resource management eco-system.
- Eliminated messy multi-vendor environment, awarded major contracts to Tier-1 providers and connected 27 remote offices into a single, seamless technology eco-system.
- Developed and executed Data Warehousing strategy, which resulted in consolidation of major applications and reduced overall IT development costs, by in-sourcing major development activities.
- Negotiated and executed major business contracts with Verizon, Microsoft, Ultipro and Salesforce, which resulted in significant functional improvements of core applications and infrastructure while re-investing in strategic technologies to sustain aggressive enterprise transformation plan.
- Improved IT personnel job satisfaction and morale by instituting clear, concise, pragmatic and trustworthy management style.

Prior to ADL, Mr. Portnoy was a Chief Information Officer at Safe Horizon, the largest social services organization in the United States, focused on providing support and advocacy to victims of domestic violence and abuse through a comprehensive set of various housing, counseling and victim-assistance programs. Safe Horizon operates across 50+ locations in all five boroughs of the City of New York. At Safe Horizon Rafail was responsible and accountable for all aspects of Information Technology, including voice/data infrastructure, data center and call center operations, multiple line of business and back-office applications and other relevant enterprise supporting technologies.

Prior to his Safe Horizon tenure, Rafail was recruited as a founding Chief Information Officer at The Levin Institute, State University of New York, to create and lead Global IT organization of a newly formed elite think tank, focused on issues of globalization and cross-border management. As part of the initial build out of corporate HQ, he introduced many innovative technology solutions, including pervasive use of video collaboration and global communication technologies, which directly aided global consultative delivery activities, Global Talent Index (GTI) research and cost effective management of marketing, recruitment, fund raising and sales activities. In addition, Rafail was instrumental to creating a highly coveted Science, Technology and International Relations (STIR) program, which focused on unique combination of global technology management for international graduate students and corporate executives. Rafail directed procurement, design and implementation of all of the information technology, audio visual technologies and logical and physical security from ground up and managed post installation "steady state" environment, achieving significant cost and time savings on service delivery.

Prior to becoming CIO at The Levin Institute Rafail was a Principal with Global Technology Services practice at IBM Global Services. In this capacity he provided IT leadership, strategic direction and visionary guidance to key IBM and industry executives in establishing long-term IT policies, processes and implementation guidelines in support of strategic organization's business objectives. Rafail also carried P&L responsibilities, including forecasting, budgeting and strategic planning in support of practice' financial operations plan.

Rafail is a recognized IT leader and is frequently invited to be a panelist and a key note speaker at various technology and industry-specific conferences. He serves as an executive mentor at the coveted Columbia University Master of Science program in Technology management and is also an active member of the extended teaching faculty cohort at NYU School of Computer Sciences and Engineering. Rafail holds a Master of Science in Information Systems Engineering degree from Brooklyn Polytechnic University, now NYU, and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Management Information Systems from Pace University. He resides in Rockland County, New York with his wife and two children.

Dear NCTS Participant:

Jewish Voice for Peace (JVP), a radical anti-Israel activist group that advocates for a complete economic, cultural and academic boycott of the state of Israel, has been sending Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to a number of law enforcement agencies that have participated in ADL's counter-terrorism seminars in Israel. We wanted to provide you with background on JVP and their activities.

"Deadly Exchange" is their latest propaganda campaign, which falsely asserts that American Jewish institutions are responsible for rising levels of police brutality and racism against people of color in the U.S. because we sponsor joint training programs between American and Israeli law enforcement agencies. To quote their website, in such law enforcement exchange programs, "'worst practices' are shared to promote and extend discriminatory and repressive policing in both countries including extrajudicial executions, shoot-to-kill policies, police murders, racial profiling, massive spying and surveillance, deportation and detention, and attacks on human rights defenders." In some cities, JVP has local affiliates that go by different names. In one small city, their local affiliate even petitioned the local city council to drop associations with these programs. We wanted to make sure you were aware of them and their agenda, should you hear from them. Here is a link to additional information about JVP on ADL's website.

Should you receive a FOIA request, which may come through an organization called MuckRock, we respectfully ask that we be notified if your agency considers disclosing any of the documents or information we've provided. You may notify us at generalcounsel@adl.org.

Please let us know if you need any additional information. Thank you.

This Saturday we will be on our way to Israel! The most important thing is for you to arrive at Newark Airport at least three (3) hours prior to our departure for Tel Aviv with your passport in hand. We'll take care of the rest!

Please email Jessica and me to let us know when you've arrived at Newark Airport. Or, if you are delayed for any reason, please contact us to let us know. Our email addresses and cell phone numbers are listed below:

Elise Jarvis
Email: ejarvis@adl.org
Cell: 917-488-4003

Jessica Gall
Email: jgall@adl.org
Cell: 312-520-2574

Jessica and I will meet everyone at the gate. I've attached a couple pictures to help you recognize us.

We hope no one misses our flight to Tel Aviv, but if anyone does, please contact United Airlines.

For your convenience, I've also attached the document we shared earlier which includes our hotel information and a suggested packing list.

Please note that when we land in Israel and deplane, we will have a short walk and then gather at the top of the escalator facing a glass corridor to head through immigration, and then gather again at the baggage claim to collect our luggage and head to our hotel.

We look forward to seeing you on Saturday and to the trip!

Hopefully by now each of you have returned or are returning home safely. It was an honor hosting you this past week, and to have had the opportunity to get to know each of you a little better. I wanted to follow up with you about a few items:

1) ADL's Alumni Network

As I mentioned, NCTS is intended to strengthen ADL's relationship with each of you and your agencies, so that we can work more closely together in the future. This is meant to be the beginning, not the end of our relationship. Towards that end, we are pleased to welcome you to our Alumni Network. The Alumni Network was created exclusively for law enforcement leaders who have graduated from one or more of ADL's national law enforcement programs and is designed for continued access to our resources, programs and events. We look forward to your participation in our alumni activities.

Benefits will include:

- Access to virtual briefings and webinars from renowned experts from ADL and law enforcement on critical issues, including: extremism, terrorism, hate crimes, leadership, police community relations, and trust building;
- Previews of new ADL resources and reports on the latest trends we are tracking in extremism, terrorism, and hate;
- New training opportunities to assist law enforcement in managing implicit bias and building trust with the communities you serve;
- Information on best practices and innovations in preventing and responding hate crimes;
- Invitations to ADL gatherings at major law enforcement conferences and events;
- Opportunities to connect and engage with other members of the Alumni Network;
- Opportunities to recommend colleagues for future sessions of ADL's national law enforcement programs;
- And access to resources and support through ADL's network of 26 Regional Offices.

2) Participant Roster

Attached you'll find a participant roster with each other's email addresses, to facilitate maintaining contact with each other.

3) Impact Letters

We also have a request of you. We wanted to ask if each of you would be willing to take a little time to write a letter on your agency letterhead that will help us convey the importance, value, and impact of your participation in ADL's National Counter-Terrorism Seminar (NCTS) in Israel to ADL leadership and supporters (as well as to potential participants in the future). We know it would be very helpful for them to hear from you.

Below are some ideas for what you may wish to include:

- How will your participation at NCTS benefit you in your work and benefit your agency?
- Describe how your participation in NCTS will enable you to better protect your community from terrorist threats.
- Describe what difference the program has made in how you would respond to a terrorist incident.
- Describe how your participation in NCTS will help strengthen your relationship with the communities with which you work.
- What makes NCTS unique from other trainings you've participated in?
- Describe how you have a better understanding of the Anti-Defamation League as a partner and resource for law enforcement as the result of your participation in NCTS.

Letters can be written to ADL's CEO Jonathan Greenblatt and mailed to me at Anti-Defamation League, c/o Elise Jarvis, 1100 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 1020, Washington, DC, 20036. I will collect them to share them with Jonathan. We deeply appreciate your time and consideration and thank you in advance.

We look forward to staying in touch and to continuing our work together towards the goal of increasing the security of our nation and the safety of its communities.

Friends, this is just a friendly reminder that if you would like to send us a letter describing the value of your participation in our Advanced Training School, we will be collecting letters through the end of the month. Thank you!

From: Jarvis, Elise
Sent: Friday, June 22, 2018 8:07 AM
Subject: Letters

We hope you found your participation in this week's Advanced Training School (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats to be valuable. If so, we would like to ask if you would be willing to take a little time to write a letter on your agency letterhead that will help us convey the importance, value, and impact of your participation in ADL's Advanced Training School to ADL leadership (as well as to potential participants in the future). We want make sure ADL's leadership and supporters are aware of the impact that this initiative has on those who attend, and to convey the importance of being able to continue to offer this program in the future. We know it would be very helpful for them to hear from you.

Below are some ideas for what you may wish to include:

- How would you describe your experience as a participant in ADL's Advanced Training School?
- How will your participation in ATS benefit you in your work and benefit your agency?
- What makes ATS unique from other trainings you've participated in?
- What were some of the highlights of the program?
- In what ways is ADL's work valuable to the law enforcement community?

Letters can be written to ADL's CEO Jonathan Greenblatt and emailed or mailed to me at Anti-Defamation League, c/o Elise Jarvis, 1100 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 1020, Washington, DC, 20036. I will collect them to share them with Jonathan. We deeply appreciate your time and consideration and thank you in advance.

As a member of ADL's Alumni Network, we are pleased to invite you to participate in a webinar briefing on the current state of white supremacy in the U.S. in advance of the one year anniversary of Charlottesville.

New Hate and Old: The State of White Supremacy on the Anniversary of Charlottesville
Monday, August 6, 2018
2:00-2:45pm Eastern

Join us for a webinar briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism focusing on the state of white supremacy in the U.S., which has experienced a resurgence in the past three years, driven in large part by the rise of the alt right. The webinar will also include an assessment of the white supremacist plans and activities for the anniversary of the "Unite the Right" in Charlottesville, as well as a sneak peek into ADL's new resource visualizing extremist activity in the U.S.

Click here to register in advance for this webinar. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Please contact Julie Hyde at jhyde@adl.org or 212-885-5825 with any questions.

This webinar is closed to media and members of the press.

Join us for a webinar briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism focusing on the state of white supremacy in the U.S., which has experienced a resurgence in the past three years, driven in large part by the rise of the alt right. The webinar will also include an assessment of the white supremacist plans and activities for the anniversary of the "Unite the Right" in Charlottesville, as well as a sneak peek into ADL's new resource visualizing extremist activity in the U.S.
